

Historic London Town & Gardens

PROGRAMS & EVENTS

Scan for events

A LIVING HISTORY PERFORMANCE

FREEDOM ON THE HORIZON

Funding made possible thanks to:
South Anne Arundel County Rotary Club

A LIVING HISTORY PERFORMANCE!

FREEDOM ON THE HORIZON

September 27th, 11:30am or 2:30pm

Nastassia Parker, a historical re-enactor, portrays Oney Judge who was born in 1773 on George Washington's plantation, Mount Vernon. Upon hearing that she would be sold to Mrs. Washington's granddaughter as a wedding gift, Judge ran away. Come listen to her story, documented by several 19th century abolitionist newspapers. Learn about the trials and tribulations she encountered while traveling on the path to freedom and independence. This program is included with admission and registration is encouraged because limited space is available.

PLUS! KIDS (0-18) FREE ON SEPTEMBER WEEKENDS!

WORLD RIVERS DAY

Sunday, September 28
10:00am - 4:00pm

Celebrate the South River and all it means to London Town on World Rivers Day. Please join us for a day full of hands-on river themed programming with experts from The Arundel River Federation and the Watershed Stewards Academy. This program is free with admission.

FALL PLANT SALE

Saturday, October 4
8:00am Members Only
9:00am Open to the Public
1:00pm End

Find a wide selection of plants for sale—many of which are featured throughout our gardens. All plants are hardy to USDA zones 7a and 7b and thrive in our local mix of heavy clay and sandy soil. View the plant list on our website.

GARDEN RAMBLE

FEATURING THE BLACK-EYED SUZIES

October 8, 5:30pm - 8:00pm

Wander through our 10-acre gardens, enjoy delicious drinks, and revel in live music stations scattered throughout the grounds. Take in the beautiful fall colors while sipping on tasty beverages.

5:30pm – 6:30pm, ramble through the gardens and enjoy live music as Annapolis Bluegrass members jam throughout our gardens. At 6:45pm, gather at our main stage for a showcase performance by the Black-Eyed Suzies. 21+ event and one drink included. Members, $31. Non-Members, $41.

sponsored by:

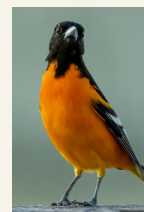

WORKSHOP

BIRD WATCHING 101

Saturday, October 11
9:00am - 10:00am

Join Anne Arundel County Rangers for this introduction to birding and get a great view of the multitude of different birds that can be found in London Town and around the Chesapeake Bay as they head South for the winter. (Ages 5+) See website for pricing.

HOMESCHOOL PROGRAM BIRDS OF A FEATHER

Tuesday, October 14
Morning: 10am-11:30am
Afternoon: 1pm-2:30pm

Migrate to London Town to say goodbye to Maryland's songbirds as they start their journey south for the winter. Explore their route, lives, and habitats with hands-on activities and games that will let students soar! For children aged 6-12. Members: $9, Non-Members: $11.50

COLONIAL COCKTAILS SPIRITS WITH THE SPIRITS

Thursday, October 16
6:30pm - 7:30pm

As the sun sets and shadows grow longer, come fortify yourself with lamb's wool and whiskey punch as we tell ghostly stories from 18th century and learn how old world All Hallow's Eve traditions bled into the new. 21+ event. Members: $26, Non-Members: $34.

CALLING ALL ARTISTS! PLEIN AIR OPEN HOUSE

Saturday, October 18
10:00am - 4:00pm

We invite artists of all levels, from beginner to expert, to capture the beauty of Historic London Town and Gardens. Come to capture the fall beauty of our historic William Brown House, stunning overlooks, and panoramic views of the South River. Admission is free for all Plein Air artists who come to paint. Rain date: Sunday, October 19th.

More event info & to register: www.historiclondontown.org/event